INTENTIONAL ISSUE #2 — Cascade Industrial Components LLC: This borrower filed for Chapter 11 bankruptcy on November 14, 2025. Despite the bankruptcy filing, the loan is carried at 95 cents on the dollar ($18,050,000 on $19,000,000 principal). For a borrower in Chapter 11, a senior secured loan should typically be marked at expected recovery value (often 65–85 cents for well-secured senior claims, lower for any sub-lien exposure). The 95-cent mark appears inconsistent with the borrower's bankruptcy status and may materially overstate NAV by $1.9M–$5.7M for this position alone.
