1. Exit Summary — TechVentures GmbH

TechVentures GmbH was sold to Deutsche Telekom AG's venture arm for EUR 85,000,000 in March 2024. After escrow release (EUR 3.5M released February 2027), total proceeds: EUR 88,500,000.

Net proceeds after transaction costs: EUR 85,000,000.

Available for distribution after reserves: EUR 62,000,000.

2. Waterfall Calculation

Cumulative distributions prior to this distribution: EUR 48,000,000

This distribution: EUR 62,000,000

Cumulative after: EUR 110,000,000

Capital drawn: EUR 437,500,000 — capital not yet fully returned.

European waterfall — this distribution is a return of capital.

LP share (98.9%): EUR 61,380,000

GP share (1.1%): EUR 682,000

GP carried interest: EUR 938,000 (allocated directly to 80/20 split)

Note: The waterfall jumps directly to the 80/20 split without first completing the GP catch-up step. The preferred return threshold has not yet been reached (cumulative EUR 110M vs threshold EUR 490M). No carry should be payable at this stage.

3. LP Distribution Schedule

Note: Distribution to Maison Beaumont Investissements SAS (5.3% share, EUR 3,291,600) has been withheld pending resolution of a disputed management fee calculation. The GP has no authority under LPA Article XII to withhold distributions for fee disputes — such disputes must go to the LPAC or arbitration. Distribution to Maison Beaumont is withheld unilaterally by the GP.

4. Wire Instruction Changes

Rheinische Versicherungsgruppe AG submitted updated wire instructions on 10 February 2027 (new IBAN: DE89 3704 0044 0532 0130 00, new beneficiary bank: Commerzbank AG Frankfurt).

The fund administrator processed the wire instruction change based on the email request alone. No callback verification to a known contact number was performed. This is a potential wire fraud vulnerability.
